Synchronous & Asynchronous Strategies

Synchronous Strategy
- Provide strong bonds and interaction between peers and peers, or teacher
- Collaboration and cooperation skill developed
- Replacement of blended or traditional classroom settings

Asynchronous Strategy
- Accessibility of diverse student populations
- All learning materials are automatically archived
- Wide-participation is allowed regardless of time and geography matters.
- Student autonomy is a key to success